Day 2: Herdiab / Kom Ombo / Djebel Silsilah - Dual Gods and Ancient Quarries

After breakfast on the Lazuli The East Dahabiya 4 Days, you will visit the unique Kom Ombo Temple, which stands on a promontory overlooking a bend in the river. This Ptolemaic sanctuary is dedicated to two gods: Sobek the crocodile god and Haroeris the hawk god. Your expert guide will explain the history of the mummified crocodiles found here and the ancient medical reliefs. After lunch, the Lazuli Dahabiya cruises to the captivating site of Djebel Silsilah. Here, you will anchor on the west bank to explore the Speos of Horemheb, a rock-hewn chapel dedicated to Pharaoh Horemheb and seven deities. You will also witness the vast ancient quarries where stones for many of Egypt's greatest temples were extracted, offering a deep look into ancient construction methods before a quiet overnight stay.

This small community remains largely untouched by mass tourism, allowing for an authentic cultural encounter where you can try fishing using traditional methods. Following lunch, you will visit the impressive Edfu Temple, dedicated to the falcon god Horus. As the most completely preserved temple in Egypt, its monumental scale and intact reliefs provide an unparalleled window into ancient religious architecture.
