Omar El Khayam Lake Cruise 4 Days Aswan Abu Simbel & Ancient Landmarks Introduction

The Omar El Khayam Lake Cruise 4 Days Aswan Abu Simbel is a transformative voyage that highlights the incredible international effort to save Egypt's heritage. Sailing between Abu Simbel and Aswan, this Omar El Khayam Lake Cruise 3 Nights itinerary by Bastet Travel features the MS Steigenberger Omar El Khayam, a vessel designed for ultimate comfort. From your private balcony, you can watch the silent beauty of Lake Nasser pass by before heading out to explore the massive architectural feats of the Pharaohs.

Your journey begins with the towering statues of Abu Simbel, followed by the "Valley of the Lions" at Wadi El Seboua. The cruise provides exclusive access to sites like the Amada Temple, the oldest in the region, and the Roman-era Temple of Kalabsha. Every moment of this tour is designed to provide a deep, unhurried immersion into the Tourist Landmarks that define the southern frontier of ancient Egypt.

Spectacular Highlights of the Journey

- Pharaonic Grandeur: Stand before the colossal rock-cut Abu Simbel temples, built by Ramesses II to demonstrate his eternal power.
- Valley of the Lions: Walk the sphinx-lined avenue at Wadi El Seboua, a site that beautifully blends New Kingdom architecture with Nubian history.

- Ancient Artistry: Admire the vibrant, perfectly preserved reliefs inside the Amada Temple, which predate the more common Ramesside styles.
- Island Fortress: View the dramatic ruins of Kasr Ibrim from the sundeck, an ancient citadel that now sits as an island in the lake.
- Greco-Roman Elegance: Explore the Temple of Kalabsha, a massive structure moved stone-by-stone to save it from the rising waters of the High Dam.
- Luxury Living: Enjoy a full-service spa, a shimmering swimming pool, and spacious cabins with large panoramic windows and private balconies.

The Journey: A Detailed Story

Your story begins in the far south at the majestic Abu Simbel temples, where the desert sun illuminates the faces of ancient kings. As the Omar El Khayam Lake Cruise 4 Days Aswan Abu Simbel sets sail, you find yourself on a floating sanctuary, passing the island citadel of Kasr Ibrim. The voyage takes you to the vibrant colors of the Amada Temple and the rock-cut halls of the Temple of Derr.

The rhythm of the lake leads you to the "Valley of the Lions" at Wadi El Seboua, where history feels untouched by time. The journey concludes in Aswan, with a final visit to the Temple of Kalabsha, standing proudly near the High Dam. Throughout the week, Bastet Travel ensures every aspect of your voyage—from the pool on the sundeck to the gourmet dinners—is executed with 5-star precision.

Conclusion

Choose Bastet Travel for a unique Nile Cruise From Luxor Aswan alternative that focuses on the quiet majesty of Lake Nasser. The Omar El Khayam Lake Cruise 4 Days Aswan Abu Simbel is the definitive way to experience the hidden gems of Nubia in absolute luxury.

Tour Itinerary

Day 1: Embarkation and the Wonders of Abu Simbel

Your journey begins with a private transfer by Bastet Travel to the ship at 1:00 P.M. After lunch, visit the legendary Abu Simbel temples, a UNESCO World Heritage site moved in a monumental 1968 rescue mission. Enjoy afternoon tea on the sundeck and an optional evening Sound & Light show.

Day 2: Sailing to Kasr Ibrim, Amada, and Derr

Start the day with breakfast before an early sail. View the Kasr Ibrim citadel from the sundeck before visiting the Amada Temple, the oldest monument on the lake. Explore the rock-cut Temple of Derr and the Tomb of Pennut. The evening features a cocktail party and a traditional Nubian show.

Day 3: The Valley of the Lions and Sail to Aswan

Visit Wadi El Seboua, home to the famous sphinx-lined avenue. You will also explore the Temple of Dakka and the Temple of Maharraqua. Enjoy lunch on board during the long, scenic sail toward Aswan, followed by a gourmet dinner.

Day 4: Kalabsha Temple and Disembarkation

After your final breakfast on board, join your guide to discover the Temple of Kalabsha and Beit El Wali near the High Dam. Following the visit, check out for your private transfer to your hotel or the airport in Aswan.
