Continue to the striking Temple of Queen Hatshepsut and the towering Colossi of Memnon, the last remnants of Amenhotep III's mortuary complex. After a high-quality lunch, cross to the East Bank to explore the Karnak Temple Complex, wandering through the massive forest of 134 columns in the Hypostyle Hall. Conclude your afternoon at the Luxor Temple, where the history of Ramses II and Alexander the Great converges. Transfer to your 5-star Luxor hotel for a restful overnight stay.

Following an early breakfast, you will board the first-class train for a scenic journey to Aswan. Upon arrival, your private tour begins with a motorboat ride to the majestic Philae Temple, dedicated to the goddess Isis and set beautifully on an island in the Nile. Continue to the Unfinished Obelisk in the granite quarries, where your guide will explain the technical challenges that caused this 1,000-ton monument to be abandoned. After lunch, visit the High Dam, a modern architectural colossus that created Lake Nasser, the second-largest artificial lake in the world.
