The Journey on the Cairo and Alexandria Overnight Shore Excursion from Alexandria port:

Your grand historical odyssey begins at the bustling northern gateway of Alexandria Port, where your private Bastet Travel representative handles your seamless meeting, assistance, and immediate transfer right by the cruise exit door. Your Cairo and Alexandria itinerary leads you on a comfortable 3-hour drive southward across the delta, where you will explore the monumental courts of The Giza Pyramids Plateau. After marveling at the towering tombs of Cheops, Chephren, and Mykerinus, you will stand before the iconic gaze of The Great Sphinx and tour The Valley Temple. Transitioning from the ancient desert necropolis to the heart of the capital, you will spend your afternoon browsing thousands of years of pharaonic art inside The Egyptian Museum, before checking in to your 5-star hotel. This overnight layout provides the luxury of time, allowing you to relax comfortably or enjoy optional evening events like a dinner cruise on the Nile or a starlit light show.

The second morning of your Cairo and Alexandria journey brings you back towards the beautiful Mediterranean coast. Traveling via a private air-conditioned modern vehicle, you will return to Alexandria to explore its top archaeological landmarks. You will descend deep into the rock-cut history of The Catacombs of Kom El Shoqafa, wandering through ancient Roman tunnels that showcase an extraordinary architectural fusion of classical and pharaonic design. After savoring a fresh lunch at a local restaurant, you will explore the defensive limestone towers of Qaitbay Citadel, standing proudly on the exact foundations of the lost ancient Lighthouse of Alexandria, before touring the spectacular sun-drenched halls of the Bibliotheca Alexandrina. Concluding your comprehensive heritage circuit, a short drive brings you safely back to your cruise ship for final departure.
