Tour Itinerary

Day 1: Arrival Day to Cairo

Your Easter Vacation to Egypt begins the moment you land at Cairo International Airport. Our professional airport agent will be waiting for you before customs to assist with your entry visa, luggage, and baggage pickup. Once formalities are complete, you will be transferred in a private, modern, air-conditioned vehicle to your hotel in Cairo. After checking in for your three-night stay, you will have free time to relax, adjust to the time zone, and soak in the atmosphere of the city as you prepare for the legendary adventure ahead.

Day 2: Cairo Day Tour - Pyramids of Giza, Saqqara, and Memphis

Today establishes the historical foundation of your Easter Vacation to Egypt. After an Oriental breakfast, you meet your Egyptologist to visit the Great Pyramids of Giza. You will explore the pyramids of Khufu, Khafre, and Menkaure, and learn about the Sphinx & Valley Temple's role in the ancient embalming process. Following a lunch buffet with pyramid views, you head south to the Saqqara Site to see the Step Pyramid of King Djoser. The day concludes at the Memphis Open-Air Museum, home to the Alabaster Sphinx and the Colossus of Ramses, before returning to your hotel.

Day 3: Old Cairo Tour - Coptic and Islamic Cairo

Dive into the spiritual layers of the capital on the third day of your Easter Vacation to Egypt. You will explore Coptic Cairo, visiting the Hanging Church, St. Sergius Church, and Ben Ezra's Jewish Synagogue. After visiting the Amr Ebn El-Aas Mosque, the first mosque in Egypt, enjoy a traditional Egyptian lunch. In the afternoon, you will visit the Saladin Citadel, featuring the iconic Alabaster Mosque of Muhammad Ali. If time permits, enjoy a stroll along the Nile in the city center before returning to your Cairo hotel for the evening.

Day 4: Aswan Day Tour - Check-in Hotel

Your Easter Vacation to Egypt shifts to Upper Egypt today. After breakfast, you fly to Aswan and begin a city tour starting with the High Dam, a 20th-century engineering feat. You will then take a boat to reach the island-based Philae Temple (Isis Temple). Following a Nubian lunch, visit the ancient granite quarry to see the Unfinished Obelisk. After checking into your Aswan hotel, you are free to explore the colorful spice markets and charming local streets as the sun sets over the Nile.

Day 5: Abu Simbel Day Trip - Check-in Nile Cruise

An early start marks one of the most majestic highlights of your Easter Vacation to Egypt: the Abu Simbel Temples. You will travel south to witness the massive rock-cut temples of King Ramses II and Queen Nefertari. After marveling at these ancient wonders, you return to Aswan to check in for your 3-night luxury Nile Cruise. Enjoy lunch on board followed by free time to enjoy the sundeck. The evening features a welcome Nubian party on the ship as you begin your navigation down the Nile.

Day 6: Start Nile Cruise Navigation and Crocodile Temple Visit

Enjoy a relaxing morning on your Easter Vacation to Egypt as the cruise ship sails through the Nile Valley. This is the perfect time to observe rural Egyptian life along the banks. After lunch on board, the ship docks at Kom Ombo. You will visit the unique Kom Ombo Temple, known as the Crocodile Temple, dedicated to the gods Sobek and Haroeris. Return to the ship's deck for dinner and a peaceful night's sleep as the cruise continues its journey toward Edfu.

Day 7: Edfu Temple Visit and Sailing to Luxor

Today's segment of the Easter Vacation to Egypt begins with a horse-drawn carriage ride through Edfu town to the Edfu Temple. This House of the Horus Falcon God is one of the best-preserved ancient sites in the country. Return to the ship to sail through the Esna Lock toward Luxor. Upon arrival in "Thebes," you will visit the iconic Luxor Temple located on the Nile Boulevard. Enjoy a magnificent dinner on board and spend your first night in Luxor docked alongside the ancient city.

Day 8: Luxor City Tour - Valley of Kings, Karnak, and Hatshepsut Temples

After checking out of the cruise, your Easter Vacation to Egypt takes you to the legendary Valley of the Kings, where the pharaohs were buried in hidden tombs. You will visit the terraced Temple of Queen Hatshepsut and the massive Colossi of Memnon. Following a local lunch, you will explore the Karnak Temple, the largest religious complex ever built. Check into your Luxor hotel for a two-night stay and enjoy an evening stroll along the charming Nile Boulevard and local markets.

Day 9: Luxor West Bank Tour - Queens, Nobles & More

This day provides a deeper exploration of Luxor's history on your Easter Vacation to Egypt. You will visit the Valley of the Queens to see royal burial sites, followed by the Habu Temple of King Ramses III. After lunch, explore the Valley of the Nobles, which houses the intricate tombs of ancient aristocracy, and visit the Ramesseum, the memorial temple of Ramses II. This comprehensive look at the West Bank ensures you see the full scale of Pharaonic architectural ambition before returning to your hotel.

Day 10: Luxor to Hurghada - Red Sea Transition

After a final Luxor breakfast, your Easter Vacation to Egypt transitions from the river to the sea. You will travel in a private vehicle to Hurghada on the Red Sea coast. Our team will assist with your check-in at a luxury resort, marking the beginning of the relaxation segment of your holiday. Spend the afternoon lounging on the Hurghada Beaches or enjoying the resort's facilities. Your soft all-inclusive stay begins here, providing the perfect contrast to your historical journey.

Day 11: Sea Trip to Giftun Island

Experience the world-famous Red Sea Marine Life on the eleventh day of your Easter Vacation to Egypt. You will enjoy a boat journey to Giftun Island, a prime destination for witnessing incredible fish and Coral Reefs. You can choose to swim in the turquoise waters or opt for snorkeling and diving activities. After a day of maritime adventure, return to your hotel for dinner. This once-in-a-lifetime experience highlights the natural beauty of Egypt's coastline.

Day 12: Hurghada - Relaxing Day at the Red Sea

Today is dedicated to pure leisure on your Easter Vacation to Egypt. Relax on the pristine shores of Hurghada, take a dip in the Red Sea, or enjoy the various amenities at your resort. Optional sea activities like diving or snorkeling are available if you wish to explore more of the underwater world. This peaceful day is designed to ensure you return home refreshed, having balanced the cultural intensity of the previous days with true coastal bliss.

Day 13: Travel back to Cairo & The Egyptian Museum

After a final morning in Hurghada, you will fly back to Cairo for the conclusion of your Easter Vacation to Egypt. Upon landing, you will be met and assisted before checking into your hotel. Your Egyptologist will then guide you through The Egyptian Museum for one last look at the nation's vast collection of artifacts, including the treasures of Tutankhamun. Return to your hotel for a final evening in Cairo to reflect on your incredible 14-day journey.

Day 14: Departure Day

On the final day of your Easter Vacation to Egypt, meet our airport agent after breakfast. You will be transferred in a private vehicle to Cairo International Airport. Our airport adviser will assist you with every step of the departure process, from check-in to your final gate, ensuring you leave with fond memories of a transformative and magical adventure through the land of civilization.
