Tour Itinerary

Day 1: Arrival in Cairo

Your Easter Holiday Sharm El Sheikh adventure officially begins as you land at Cairo International Airport. Our dedicated airport representative will greet you before customs, assisting with your entry visa, luggage, and baggage pickup. You will then be escorted to a contemporary, private air-conditioned vehicle for a smooth transfer to your hotel. After a quick check-in for your three-night stay, the rest of the evening is yours to relax, adjust to the city's energy, and prepare for the 14-day journey of a lifetime.

Day 2: Great Pyramids of Giza, Saqqara, and Memphis

Today establishes the historical heart of your Easter Holiday Sharm El Sheikh. After a sumptuous breakfast, your Egyptologist leads you to the Giza Pyramids Complex to see the Great Pyramid of Khufu, Khafre, and Menkaure. You will stand before the Great Sphinx and the Valley Temple, learning about ancient embalming techniques. After a scenic lunch, you visit the Saqqara Site to witness the Step Pyramid of Djoser, followed by the Memphis Open-Air Museum to see the Colossus of Ramses and the Alabaster Sphinx.

Day 3: Coptic and Islamic Cairo Exploration

Delve into the spiritual layers of the capital on the third day of your Easter Holiday Sharm El Sheikh. You will wander the old alleyways of Coptic Cairo, visiting the Hanging Church, St. Sergius, and Ben Ezra's Jewish Synagogue. After visiting the Amr Ebn El-Aas Mosque, the first in Egypt, enjoy a chic Cairo lunch. The afternoon is spent at the Saladin Citadel, home to the Muhammad Ali Alabaster Mosque and Sultan El Nasir's Green Mosque, offering breathtaking panoramic vistas of the city.

Day 4: Flight to Aswan & Aswan City Tour

Your Easter Holiday Sharm El Sheikh moves to the tranquil south today. After breakfast, you fly to Aswan and immediately begin your city tour at the High Dam, a modern architectural marvel. You will then take a boat to Agilika Island to visit the Philae Temple, known as the House of the Goddess of Love. After a traditional Nubian lunch, visit the ancient granite quarry to see the Unfinished Obelisk. After checking into your hotel, spend the late afternoon exploring Aswan's vibrant spice markets.

Day 5: Abu Simbel Temples & Nile Cruise Check-in

An early start marks one of the most majestic highlights of your Easter Holiday Sharm El Sheikh: the Abu Simbel Temples. You will travel to the impressive rock-cut temples of King Ramses II and Queen Nefertari, marveling at their colossal facades. Upon returning to Aswan, you will check in for your 3-night luxury Nile Cruise. Enjoy lunch on board followed by a welcome Nubian party in the evening, beginning your navigation through the timeless landscapes of the Nile Valley.

Day 6: Nile Navigation & Kom Ombo Temple Visit

Enjoy the serene pace of your Easter Holiday Sharm El Sheikh as the cruise ship sails north. Spend your morning observing the lush plains of the Nile from the sundeck. After lunch on board, the ship docks at sunset for a visit to the Kom Ombo Temple. This unique double temple is dedicated to the Crocodile God Sobek and the Falcon God Haroeris. You will explore the temple's symmetrical architecture before returning to the ship for dinner and an overnight stay on the water.

Day 7: Edfu Temple & Arrival in Luxor

Today, your Easter Holiday Sharm El Sheikh experience takes a classic turn as you travel by horse-drawn carriage to the Edfu Temple. This House of the Horus Falcon God is exceptionally well-preserved and offers a vivid look into Ptolemaic religious life. Return to the cruise and sail through the Esna Lock toward Luxor. Upon docking, your first stop is the illuminated Luxor Temple, famous for its connection to the ancient Opet Festival, followed by a peaceful night on board in Luxor.

Day 8: Valley of the Kings & East Bank Grandeur

The eighth day of your Easter Holiday Sharm El Sheikh is dedicated to the wonders of the New Kingdom. You will head to the Valley of the Kings to explore royal necropolises, followed by the terraced Temple of Hatshepsut and the Colossi of Memnon. After a local lunch, you will explore the monumental Karnak Temple, a complex built over two millennia. You will then transfer to your Luxor hotel for a two-night stay, with time to wander the charming local markets in the evening.

Day 9: West Bank Deep Dive - Queens, Nobles & Habu

Return to the West Bank for a detailed exploration on your Easter Holiday Sharm El Sheikh. Today, you visit the Valley of the Queens to see royal burial sites and the Habu Temple of Ramses III, famous for its elaborate hieroglyphics. After a West Bank lunch, explore the Valley of the Nobles, depicting daily life in ancient Egypt, and the Ramesseum, also known as the House of Millions of Years. This comprehensive historical day concludes with a return to your hotel for relaxation.

Day 10: Flight to Sharm El Sheikh - Red Sea Bliss

Your Easter Holiday Sharm El Sheikh transitions from history to pure bliss today. After breakfast, you fly from Luxor to Sharm El Sheikh. Upon arrival, our team assists with your check-in at a luxury resort. This marks the beginning of your soft all-inclusive beach break. Spend your afternoon on the Red Sea Beaches, enjoying the turquoise waters and pristine sands. This is the restorative phase of your holiday, designed for total personal renewal by the sea.

Day 11: Sharm El Sheikh - Relaxation Day

Savor a peaceful day on the Red Sea as part of your Easter Holiday Sharm El Sheikh. Relax by the stunning waves, soak up the sun, or take a dip in the crystal-clear waters. All meals and drinks are provided at your resort, allowing you to unwind completely. This day is about the quiet joy of the Red Sea, offering a vital contrast to the monumental exploration of the previous days. Enjoy the resort's world-class amenities as you recharge.

Day 12: Sharm El Sheikh - Leisure & Optional Sea Activities

Enjoy another calm day in paradise on your Easter Holiday Sharm El Sheikh. You have the freedom to lounge on the beach or take part in optional sea activities like snorkeling or diving to explore the vibrant Coral Reefs. Sharm El Sheikh is world-famous for its underwater biodiversity, and today is the perfect time to witness it firsthand. Spend your final evening in the resort enjoying the sea breeze and reflecting on your journey through the Land of the Pharaohs.

Day 13: Return to Cairo & The Egyptian Museum

After a leisurely morning stroll and a final Red Sea breakfast, your Easter Holiday Sharm El Sheikh brings you back to the capital. You will fly to Cairo and check into your hotel for the final night. Your Egyptologist will then lead you on a final visit to The Egyptian Museum, allowing you to revisit the treasures and artifacts with a new perspective gained from your travels south. Spend the evening relaxing at your hotel as you prepare for your flight home.

Day 14: Final Departure

On the final day of your Easter Holiday Sharm El Sheikh, enjoy a final breakfast at your hotel before meeting our airport representative. You will be transferred in a private vehicle to Cairo International Airport. Our expert will assist you with every step of the departure process, from check-in to security, ensuring you leave Egypt with a heart full of happy memories and a deep connection to the majesty of this ancient land.
