11-day Nile Cruise and Sharm package with Bastet Travel. Combine Cairo Pyramids, and a Red Sea beach escape. Secure your private tour today!

Why You Will Love This Package

The ultimate realization of an Egyptian dream holiday lies in the perfect marriage of two distinct worlds: the monumental, stone-carved history of the Nile Valley and the vibrant, sapphire-blue tranquility of the Red Sea coast. Our exclusive 11-Day Nile Cruise and Sharm El Sheikh holiday package offers a masterfully balanced, comprehensive journey across Egypt's most legendary destinations. This curated Egypt Tour Package smoothly connects the deep historic heart of Cairo, a classic three-night luxury river cruise from Aswan to Luxor, and an extended tropical escape in the world-renowned resort paradise of Sharm El Sheikh.

At Bastet Travel, we design our itineraries to eliminate the frantic pacing and crowded schedules of standard group travel. This private, highly customizable expedition offers an unparalleled level of personal freedom. Throughout your journey, dedicated English-speaking Egyptologists provide private guided tours of the ancient world's most iconic sites, managing every detail seamlessly while ensuring you experience Egypt's ancient history and natural beauty without a single moment of logistical stress.

Whether you are descending into deep royal tombs, sailing past traditional farming villages on a floating five-star hotel, or snorkeling alongside pristine coral reefs in the Red Sea, this trip caters perfectly to couples, solo adventurers, and families alike. From VIP airport meet-and-greet services to quick domestic flights and premium beach resort stays, this seamless experience allows you to immerse yourself fully in the magic of Egypt while we handle the logistics.

Highlights of the Nile Cruise and Sharm Tour

Pyramids of Giza (Khufu, Khafre & Menkaure)

- The legendary plateau featuring the three Great Pyramids of Khufu, Khafre, and Menkaure, standing as enduring testaments to ancient geometry and monumental Old Kingdom architecture.

Sphinx

- The enigmatic, monolithic limestone sentinel carved with the body of a lion and the regal head of King Khafre, guarding the sacred eastern causeways.

Sakkara (including The Step Pyramid of king Djoser)

- The sprawling ancient desert necropolis featuring the radical stone masterpiece designed by the legendary architect Imhotep, marking the birth of pyramid engineering.

Memphis Open Air Museum (including monuments of king Ramses II)

- The historical site of Egypt's first capital, now an open-air museum housing a colossal, breathtaking fallen limestone statue of King Ramesses II.

The High Dam

- A monumental feat of modern engineering built in the 1960s to control the Nile's annual floods, forever altering Egypt's agricultural landscape and creating the massive Lake Nasser.

Temple of Philae (Agilika Island)

- An exceptionally romantic island sanctuary dedicated to the goddess Isis, rescued stone-by-stone from rising river waters through a historic UNESCO preservation campaign.

The Unfinished Obelisk

- The largest known ancient obelisk left directly in the pink granite bedrock of Aswan, offering a fascinating look into pharaonic stone-splitting engineering.

Temple of Kom Ombo

- A unique, perfectly symmetrical riverside double temple dedicated jointly to Sobek the crocodile god and Haroeris the falcon god.

Temple of Horus in Edfu

- The most completely preserved Ptolemaic cult temple in Egypt, accessible by traditional horse carriage and famous for its towering sandstone pylon gates.

Valley of the Kings

- The legendary hidden canyon necropolis where New Kingdom pharaohs were laid to rest in deep, rock-cut tombs filled with vibrant, well-preserved religious murals.

Temple of Queen Hatshepsut (Deir El Bahari)

- A striking, multi-tiered classical terrace temple rising sharply against the dramatic limestone cliffs of Deir El Bahari, honoring Egypt's great female pharaoh.

Colossi of Memnon

- Two towering, 60-foot quartz-sandstone monolithic statues of Amenhotep III that stand as silent guardians of his long-lost mortuary complex.

Karnak Temples Complex

- A massive, sprawling religious complex dedicated to Amun-Ra, featuring the breathtaking Great Hypostyle Hall supported by 134 colossal sandstone columns.

Temple of Luxor

- An elegant, beautifully lit urban temple complex built by Amenhotep III and Ramesses II, running parallel to the scenic Nile corniche of ancient Thebes.

Ras Mohamed (including The Shark Observatory)

- A world-famous marine national park at the tip of Sinai, offering vertical coral drop-offs and panoramic coastal views from its high cliffside observatory tower.

Canyon Trip (including Nuweiba and Dahab)

- An exhilarating off-road jeep safari through deep, winding desert rock gorges, combined with coastal visits to the bohemian towns of Nuweiba and Dahab.

The Egyptian Museum

- The iconic historic museum located in Tahrir Square, housing an unparalleled collection of thousands of pharaonic artifacts, antiquities, and royal treasures.

Old Cairo area

- An ancient spiritual quarter featuring historic architecture and deep cultural roots, tracing Egypt's multi-layered medieval and religious heritage.

Citadel of Salah El-Din

- A massive medieval Islamic fortress built high upon the hills, featuring grand defensive walls, historic mosques, and panoramic views across the Cairo skyline.

Khan El-Khalili

- A vibrant, labyrinthine open-air historic bazaar in Islamic Cairo, filled with the aromas of exotic spices, glittering lanterns, and traditional artisan workshops.
