Tour Itinerary

Day 1: Egyptian Treasures & Vibrant Bazaars

Your 3 Day Giza Pyramid Tour begins with a prompt, comfortable pickup from your accommodation in a private air-conditioned vehicle to launch the 3 Day Giza Pyramid Tour. Your private guide will escort you directly to the state-of-the-art National Museum of Egyptian Civilization, an incredible facility that showcases the continuity of local culture from prehistoric times to the modern era. Here, you will explore the famous Royal Mummies Hall, designed to replicate the atmosphere of ancient valley tombs. After your museum exploration, ascend the high hill to the medieval Citadel of Cairo, a majestic fortress founded by Saladin in the 12th century. Take in the panoramic views before spending your afternoon exploring the historic, colorful lanes of the Khan El Khalili Bazaar, an incredible destination for authentic local crafts, spices, and handmade souvenirs.

Day 2: Historic Old Cairo Exploration

The second phase of your 3 Day Giza Pyramid Tour takes you back into the heart of medieval history as you stroll down Old Cairo (including Al Muizz Street), one of the oldest thoroughfares in the Islamic world. Your expert guide will walk you through the historic public square of Bayn al-Qasrayn, explaining how this area served as the center of royal palace life during the Fatimid and Mamluk eras. Step inside the magnificent Complex of Sultan Qalawun to view its stunning marble mosaics and stained-glass windows, before continuing to the soaring arches of the Mosque-Madrassa of Sultan Barquq. Conclude your historic walking route at the massive stone towers of Bab El Fotouh, one of the city's last remaining defensive northern gates, where your private vehicle will be waiting to return you to your hotel.

Day 3: Pyramids, Sphinx & Ancient Capitals

The grand finale of your 3 Day Giza Pyramid Tour brings you to the edge of the desert plateau to view the iconic Pyramids of Giza (Great Pyramids of Cheops, Chephren, and Mykerinus). Stand before these ancient wonders as your guide shares the latest archaeological insights, and enjoy specialized shopping tours in Pyramids of Giza to browse authentic local craft workshops. Next, descend to the base of the plateau to meet the majestic Great Sphinx and explore the adjacent Valley Temple ruins. After lunch, head south to Memphis (Ramses II's colossal statue) to visit the open-air museum of Egypt's first capital, before continuing to Saqqara (Step Pyramid) to see Djoser's famous tiered funerary complex. Conclude your tour at the UNESCO-listed desert site of Dahshur

(Bent Pyramid), marveling at the unique double-angle design that marks a key step in the evolution of pyramid engineering.
