The Journey: A Detailed Story of the Abu Simbel Tour From Hurghada

The story of your Abu Simbel tour from Hurghada is a two-day chronicle of power, love, and preservation (L). It begins as you leave the Red Sea coast, crossing the Eastern Desert to reach the Nile at Aswan, where the river was tamed by the High Dam and the goddess Isis was given a new island home at Philae. The narrative deepens as you explore the ancient quarries, touching the very stone that built the obelisks of kings. On the second day, the story moves to the edge of the Sahara, where the sun rises over the giants of Abu Simbel—statues that were literally moved by the modern world to keep their ancient alignment with the sun.
