Detailed Cairo & Luxor Tour Plan

Day 1: The Giza Plateau, Tutankhamun Treasures, and Islamic Cairo

Your journey through Cairo & Luxor From Marsa Alam begins with an early flight to the capital, where the horizon is dominated by the Great Pyramids of Giza. After exploring the Pyramid of Cheops, you will visit the Valley Temple and the Great Sphinx to understand the complex funerary rites of the Old Kingdom during this Cairo & Luxor From Marsa Alam expedition. Following a lunch of authentic Egyptian cuisine, you will move to The Egyptian Museum to witness the legendary Tutankhamun Treasures, featuring the iconic gold mask and jewelry. The afternoon concludes with a walk through the historic Khan El Khalili Bazaar in the heart of Islamic Cairo before you depart for your evening flight. This comprehensive day ensures you experience the absolute best of the capital before continuing your Cairo & Luxor From Marsa Alam adventure in the south.

Day 2: The East Bank Splendor and West Bank Royal Necropolis

The second half of your Cairo & Luxor From Marsa Alam tour commences in the world's largest open-air museum, starting at the massive Karnak Temples. Your guide will lead you through the Great Hypostyle Hall, explaining the solar theology that governed this Cairo & Luxor From Marsa Alam site for centuries. Crossing to the West Bank, you will stand before the Colossi of Memnon before descending into the Valley of the Kings to explore three magnificent royal tombs. The tour reaches its architectural peak at the Hatshepsut Temple at El Deir El Bahary, where the terraced design honors Egypt's most famous female pharaoh. This final leg of your Cairo & Luxor From Marsa Alam journey provides a deep-dive into the New Kingdom's golden age before your private return transfer to Marsa Alam.
