Tour Itinerary

Step 1: The Royal Tombs of the West Bank

Your Cairo to Valley of the Kings Tour begins with a prompt morning pickup by your private guide and driver from your designated location to begin the Cairo to Valley of the Kings Tour. You will cross to the rugged West Bank of the Nile to stand within the legendary Valley of the Kings. Step inside the mountain to descend into three beautifully preserved royal tombs, such as those of Ramses II or Tutankhamun. As you walk down the modern wooden viewing ramps, notice how vibrant the original paints remain—your guide will decode the complex hieroglyphics and painted reliefs that still line the ancient stone walls, revealing the spiritual rituals of the pharaohs' journey into the afterlife.

Step 2: Cliffside Masterpieces & Stone Giants

Next, your private vehicle winds through the desert landscape on this Cairo to Valley of the Kings Tour to reach the stunning Hatshepsut Temple at Deir el-Bahari as part of the Cairo to Valley of the Kings Tour. This architectural marvel features massive terraced colonnades built directly into the sheer limestone cliffs, standing as a bold monument to Egypt's most powerful female pharaoh. After exploring her legacy, you will make a short stop before the towering Colossi of Memnon. These twin, 60-foot-tall stone statues representing Amenhotep III have stood guard over the plain for more than 3,400 years, offering an incredible backdrop for historical photographs.

Step 3: Scenic Nile Boat Ride & Local Restaurant Lunch

After a busy morning exploring the desert monuments on the Cairo to Valley of the Kings Tour, you will leave the heat behind for a refreshing, scenic boat ride along the Nile River during the Cairo to Valley of the Kings Tour. Feel the cool river breeze as you glide across the water in a traditional vessel, taking in the lush green banks that line the river. Your boat will bring you to a peaceful, quiet island oasis where you will sit down at a local restaurant to enjoy a delicious local lunch, providing the perfect midday break to relax and talk about the morning's discoveries before crossing over to the East Bank.

Step 4: The Monumental Greatness of the East Bank

Refreshed from lunch, the final phase of your Cairo to Valley of the Kings Tour brings you to explore the awe-inspiring Karnak Temple, the largest religious complex ever constructed by human hands, during the concluding hours of the Cairo to Valley of the Kings Tour. Your Egyptologist will lead you through the breathtaking Great Hypostyle Hall, a massive forest of 134 towering sandstone pillars decorated with intricate carvings. Walk along the historic Avenue of Sphinxes to reach your final destination: Luxor Temple. Located right in the heart of the modern city, this beautiful monument looks particularly magical late in the day as the sun dips below the horizon, and the temple's grand courtyards and colossal statues of Ramses II are beautifully lit up, creating an enchanting atmosphere to conclude your journey before your private transfer back.
