Tour Itinerary

Morning: Port Pickup and Giza Plateau Exploration

Your tour begins the moment your cruise ship arrives at Alexandria Port. Your private tour manager from Bastet Travel will meet you by the cruise exit door, holding a sign with your name. You will be escorted to a luxury air-conditioned vehicle for a comfortable 3-hour drive to Cairo. Upon arrival at the Giza Plateau, your private English-speaking guide will lead you on a comprehensive tour of the Great Pyramids of Cheops, Chephren, and Mykerinus. You will learn about the sophisticated design of these historically important buildings before visiting the Great Sphinx. The morning concludes with a visit to the Valley Temple, belonging to the Pyramids of Chephren, where you will discover the ancient techniques of the Old Kingdom.

Afternoon: Nile Lunch Cruise, Sailing, and Return Journey

Following your desert exploration, you will move to central Cairo to board a boat for a relaxing lunch cruise on the Nile. From 15:30 to 17:30, you will enjoy a sumptuous buffet lunch featuring a variety of international and Egyptian dishes. This experience includes one hour of sailing past Cairo's waterfront landmarks, accompanied by a live folkloric show and traditional oriental music. After the cruise, you will stop at a Papyrus Institute to see how ancient paper was made and have the opportunity to shop for authentic souvenirs. Finally, your private vehicle will begin the drive back to Alexandria. Please note that return to the port is typically around 21:00, providing a full day of immersion before you rejoin your cruise ship.
