Tour Itinerary

Dual Sanctities and Crocodile Heritage

The professional Kom Ombo and Edfu Temples From Aswan expedition begins with a private pick-up from your Aswan hotel. The first phase of the itinerary involves a sovereign one-hour drive to the Temple of Kom Ombo, perched dramatically over the Nile. Your Egyptologist guide will lead you through the "Double Temple," explaining the unique symmetrical architecture dedicated to both Sobek and Haroeris. You will observe the high-authority medical reliefs and the ancient calendar carvings before visiting the Crocodile Museum to see the mummified remains found on the riverbank. This phase is designed to provide a peerless window into the scientific and dualistic beliefs of the Greco-Roman period, providing a technical perspective on ancient Egyptian medicine before continuing your journey further north.

Falcon Mastery and Sovereign Return

The second half of your Kom Ombo and Edfu Temples From Aswan itinerary involves a two-hour drive to the city of Edfu. The high-authority plan focuses on the Temple of Horus, the largest and most complete temple dedicated to the falcon god. You will walk through the massive gateway and explore the various halls, chapels, and the sacred sanctuary while your guide recounts the legendary victory of Horus over Seth. Following the temple visit, you will enjoy a sovereign lunch before beginning the return journey. For added flexibility, this tour offers the "Sovereign Standard" option to be dropped off at your hotel in Luxor at no extra cost, or returned to your accommodation in Aswan, completing a comprehensive and professional narrative of Upper Egypt's most impressive Ptolemaic monuments.
