Tour Itinerary

Day 01: Port Said Pickup, Pyramids, and Ancient Architecture

Your Port Said to Cairo adventure begins with a professional greeting at the Port Said port cruise exit door. A dedicated representative from Bastet Travel will be waiting with a personalized sign to ensure a smooth start to your journey. You will then be transferred in a private, air-conditioned vehicle to Cairo, traveling within a secure police convoy for approximately 3 hours. Upon arrival, your fantastic tour begins at the legendary Giza Pyramids Complex, where you will cast your eyes on the three Great Pyramids of Cheops, Chephren, and Mykerinus. Your Egyptologist guide will explain the sophisticated engineering that has allowed these structures to stand for millennia. You will proceed to visit the iconic Great Sphinx, the limestone guardian of the plateau, and the Valley Temple, once used for the sacred purification and mummification rituals of King Chephren. Following a delicious traditional lunch at a local restaurant, you will continue your historical journey to Saqqara to visit the Step Pyramid of Djoser, built around 2630 BC as the world's oldest major stone structure. The day concludes as you check into your 5* Cairo hotel for a relaxing overnight stay, marking a successful first day of your Port Said to Cairo exploration.

Day 02: Museum Masterpieces, Citadel, and Departure

The second day of your Port Said to Cairo excursion begins with a high-quality breakfast at your hotel before heading to the Egyptian Museum (or the GEM). Here, you will discover a phenomenal collection of over 250,000 artifacts spanning 5,000 years of art. The highlight is the dedicated Tutankhamun Exhibit, where you will witness the boy king's treasures, including his world-famous gold mask and jewelry that remained sealed for over 3,500 years. Following another traditional lunch, the tour shifts to the medieval beauty of the Salah El Din Citadel. Within this massive 12th-century fortress, you will explore the Alabaster Mosque of Mohamed Ali, a masterpiece of Ottoman architecture designed by Yousif Boushnaq. If time permits, the final segment of your Port Said to Cairo trip will lead you into the heart of Islamic Cairo to explore the Khan El Khalili Bazaar, the city's oldest historic marketplace. Your guide will illuminate the facts about the magnificent buildings and local culture as you browse for authentic souvenirs. Finally, you will begin your private return transfer to Port Said Port, ensuring a timely arrival back at your cruise ship for your final departure.
