Morning: Port Pickup and Giza Pyramid Wonders

Your Port Said to Pyramids experience begins with a professional greeting. A representative from Bastet Travel will meet you directly at the Port Said Port cruise exit door, holding a sign with your name for instant identification. You will be transferred to Cairo in a private, air-conditioned vehicle, joining a secure police convoy for the approximately 3-hour journey to the capital. Upon reaching Giza, you will immediately embark on a guided exploration of the three Great Pyramids of Cheops, Chephren, and Mykerinus. Your Egyptologist will explain the sophisticated design and historical importance of these world-defining monuments. A major highlight of the morning is the included camel caravan ride in the desert surrounding the pyramids, which offers a spectacular panoramic viewpoint for the perfect photographs. The Giza segment of your Port Said to Pyramids tour continues with a visit to the Valley Temple to learn about ancient mummification rituals, followed by a visit to the colossal Great Sphinx, the mythical guardian of the plateau. This morning of grandeur ensures you witness the most iconic symbols of Egypt with expert insight.

Afternoon: Saqqara Archaeology and Ancient Arts

Following a delicious, authentic lunch at a high-quality local restaurant in Giza, the second half of your Port Said to Pyramids excursion takes you to the Saqqara Necropolis. As Egypt's oldest ancient cemetery, Saqqara is home to the Step Pyramid of King Djoser, the world's first monumental stone building designed by the master engineer Imhotep. You will explore this vital archaeological site to understand the evolution of pyramid construction. Your tour also includes a Mastaba visit, where you will enter one of the richly decorated ancient burial chambers, such as those of Ptah Hotep or Mereruca, to see the intricate funerary art of the Old Kingdom. Before beginning your return journey to the port, you will make a short stop at a Papyrus Institute to witness a demonstration of ancient paper-making and shop for authentic souvenirs. Finally, you will be transferred back to Port Said Port in your private vehicle, coordinated with the return convoy to ensure a timely arrival at your cruise ship. This comprehensive plan makes your Port Said to Pyramids day tour a seamless and deeply enriching historical experience.
