Professional Tour From Aswan to Abu Simbel Landmark Introduction

The highlights of your tour from Aswan to Abu Simbel are two of the most significant monuments in the world, carved directly into the desert mountainside. The Great Temple of Ramses II stands as a towering testament to pharaonic power, guarded by four 20-meter-tall statues of the king. It is a site of astronomical genius, where the internal sanctuary is precisely oriented to the sun. Adjacent to this is The Temple of Queen Nefertari (Temple of Hathor), a rare architectural tribute where the queen's statues stand at the same scale as the pharaoh's. These temples represent the pinnacle of New Kingdom artistry, but they also tell a modern story of international cooperation. Between 1964 and 1968, the entire complex was saved from the rising waters of Lake Nasser through an incredible UNESCO rescue operation, moving the temples 65 meters higher to preserve their legacy for future generations.

Spectacular Highlights of the Tour From Aswan to Abu Simbel

- The Four Colossi: Marvel at the massive 20-meter-tall statues of Ramses II that dominate the temple's exterior facade.
- Solar Alignment Secret: Learn how the sun's rays illuminate the inner sanctuary precisely on February 22nd and October 22nd.
- Nefertari's Devotion: Explore the exquisite carvings in the Temple of Hathor, where Queen Nefertari is honored as a goddess.
- Symbolic Union: Discover the reliefs that symbolize the union of the pharaoh with the sun god, an essential part of ancient theology.
- The 1,040 Blocks: Walk through the temples and learn the modern history of how they were cut into over a thousand blocks for relocation.
- Sunrise Over Nubia: Enjoy the shifting colors of the Nubian Desert during your early morning drive from Aswan.

Tour Itinerary

The Pharaoh's Dawn and the Great Temple of Ramses II

Your tour from Aswan to Abu Simbel begins with a prompt 4:00 AM hotel pickup in Aswan. You will travel in a private, air-conditioned vehicle for a three-hour scenic drive through the Nubian Desert. This early departure ensures you are among the first to arrive at the site, allowing you to beat the largest crowds and the intense midday desert heat. Upon arrival at the UNESCO World Heritage site, your licensed Egyptologist will lead you directly to the Great Temple of Ramses II. You will stand in awe before the four 20-meter-tall colossi guarding the entrance before heading inside to explore the grand halls. Your guide will provide a detailed explanation of the temple's strategic orientation and the precise solar alignment phenomenon, which occurs twice a year on February 22nd and October 22nd. You will also learn the incredible modern history of the UNESCO rescue operation from 1964–1968, discovering how engineers meticulously dismantled the temple into 1,040 blocks to relocate it 65 meters higher. This morning session provides a deep understanding of both ancient pharaonic power and modern engineering brilliance.

The Queen's Sanctuary and the Journey Back to Aswan

Following your exploration of the Great Temple, the tour from Aswan to Abu Simbel continues to the adjacent Temple of Queen Nefertari, also known as the Temple of Hathor. This equally impressive sanctuary was dedicated by Ramses II to his beloved wife, and you will admire the exquisite carvings that symbolize the union of the pharaoh with the sun god. Your Egyptologist will guide you through the interior reliefs, explaining the significance of the goddess Hathor and the unique architectural decision to make the Queen's statues the same size as the King's. This visit provides a comprehensive view of the site's rich history and the personal artistry behind the monuments. After finishing your exploration of both temples and taking in the breathtaking views of Lake Nasser, you will begin the comfortable three-hour return drive to Aswan. Throughout the journey, bottled water is provided in your private vehicle to keep you refreshed. The total duration of the excursion is approximately 12-14 hours, concluding with a drop-off at your hotel or Nile cruise in Aswan, with all service charges and taxes fully handled.
